Dear Dr. Dotzour,

Thank you so much for helping to make Leaders in Luxury a success!

Your presentation last Friday received excellent reviews. That evening, several of the attendees mentioned to me that they gained some real insights from your comments – a sure sign that what you shared was valuable and relevant. I am so sorry that we didn't have more time for the session. Next time we will plan at least a 90 minute time slot for you so we can have time for Q&A.

Knowing that time is our most valuable resource, I appreciate your willingness to take your time to speak to our group. The changing market makes your knowledge and insights especially valuable. Thank you so much for sharing your information and expertise. You were TERRIFIC!

Enclosed you'll find an extra copy of our meeting book, since I'm not sure you received one Friday.

Thank you so much,

Laurie Moore-Moore

P.S. I'd be delighted to provide a glowing testimonial to anyone who is considering you as a speaker.
